
Title: Listen Well

Author: Baratus

Listen well, and take
heed;
For in the desert, lays
an untold deed.
Dragon's breath, forbidden
claw;
Four great stars, to call
them all.:

Seaside rainbow, captured
to keep;
Holy teardrop, sleeping so
deep.
Midnight shadows, tales
untold;
Wandering spirits, need no
gold.
Come together,
in sacrifice;
Holy pilgrim, must pay
the price.
Death to he, who would
seek this place;
For to gain its treasure,
is to doom the race
